PREFACE

Mrs. Margaret Roberts Hodges (Mrs. George W.) discovered in various places in Maryland important records covering the Colonial and Revolutionary periods in American history. She transcribed much of the same and presented a valuable series of Maryland Revolutionary manuscript volumes to the Library of the National Society, Daughters of the American Revolution. The proper officers of the latter organization, the Maryland Historical Society, and also patriotic individuals have very kindly and fully assisted the plan to publish such materials by placing at our disposal numerous important unpublished records of Maryland. Amongst these individuals Mr. Caleb Clarke Magruder, Jr., deserves especial thanks for furnishing the records and abstracts herein published, upon pages 25 to 36. The latter are hitherto unknown and inaccessible records of civil services, and are of special value in supporting applications for membership in the various patriotic societies. The entire contents of Part One are valuable for this purpose.

Invaluable early Maryland records may be in the hands of librarians and individuals throughout the Nation, and extensive benefit may result from having such brought to the attention of the undersigned for inclusion in the plan to make some of such records more generally accessible.

The selected records are to be published in a series of pamphlets, as the subscriptions may justify, in limited edition and each pamphlet containing a full index. Part One is herewith offered to all who are interested in Maryland history, and subscriptions will be entered for the proposed series. There is a close relation between this series and the materials contained in "Maryland Records—Brumbaugh," of which Vol. I was published in 1915.

The Act of Assembly, 5 February, 1777, required that the Oath of Fidelity and Support be taken by all citizens, especially all holding positions of trust, all voting at any election, all transacting business in Maryland; and even citizens of one county who transacted business in another county were required to record their Oath in the latter county—see Plates I-IV. The "Test Oath," or "Oath of Fidelity and Support," was most important in Revolutionary times, and could not be lightly taken.

In February Session, 1777, No. 1, we find:

Resolved, That Messrs. Thomas Brooke Hodgkin, Wm. Wilkins and John Johnson,—be appointed a board of auditors<sup>a</sup>—by taking the oath of fidelity to this state, and an oath well, diligently and faithfully to execute the duty of their office agreeable to this resolve and by subscribing their belief in the Christian religion, etc.

Jan. 21, 1778<sup>b</sup>—"The Committee appointed to devise effectual means to prevent persons disaffected to the interests of the United States from being employed in any of the important offices thereof, beg leave to report the following Resolutions:" etc.

<sup>a</sup> Auditors for all State accounts, the late Conventions, Councils of Safety, Gen. Assembly, Governor, etc.

Feb. 3, 1778;<sup>c</sup> The Congress passed the resolution based upon the foregoing report:

Resolved, That every officer who holds or shall hereafter hold a commission or office from Congress, shall take and subscribe the following oath or affirmation:

I, _____, do acknowledge the United States of America to be free, independent and sovereign states, and declare that the people thereof owe no allegiance or obedience to George the Third, King of Great Britain; and I renounce, refuse and abjure any allegiance or obedience to him; and I do swear (or affirm) that I will, to the utmost of my power, support, maintain and defend the said United States against the said King George the Third and his heirs and successors, and his and their abettors, assistants and adherents, and will serve the United States in the office of _____ which I now hold, with fidelity according to the best of my skill and understanding. So help me God.<sup>d</sup>

The various states were also directed to take similar action, immediately. The resolutions passed 21 Oct., 1776, prescribing the form of an oath or affirmation were also repealed.

Gains Marcus Gumbough

Washington, D. C., May 7, 1924.

<sup>d</sup> On the adoption of this resolution Messrs. Forbes and Henry, Md. delegates voted "no"—the only such votes.

* Frederick County was established in 1748, from Calvert and Prince George's counties. At the Constitutional Convention of 1776 it was decided to divide this widely extended and now more or less populous Frederick County into three counties, Washington, Montgomery and Frederick ———. The Oaths of Fidelity and Support for Washington and Montgomery Counties were published in the April Quarterly (see pp. 1, 21, Vol. VI), and these 337 signers within the Frederick County lines of 1778 complete these existing records within the bounds of Old Frederick County, 3,573 patriotic citizens. COUNTY, LOYAL CIVIL SERVICES FROM APRIL 19, 1775,
TO SEPT. 8, 1783.

By Caleb Clarke Magruder, Jr., Upper Marlboro, Md.*

"At a County Court of the Right Honorable Henry Harford Esqr,<sup>a</sup> Absolute Lord and proprietary of the province of Maryland, etc.. Held at Upper Marlborough Town in and for said County on the fourth Tuesday and Twenty-third day of August in the third year of his Lordships Dominion and in the year Seventeen hundred and Seventy-four.

Ralph Forster, Sheriff; Thomas Sim Lee, Clerk of the County. (Liber DD. 1, at 447.) Nathaniel Sait, Constable. (Ibid at 450.)

Although services of the above antedate the Battle of Lexington, April 19, 1775, they were appointed for the ensuing year from August, 1774; and probably so served since their names, with the exception of Luke Marbury, appear as Justices of the Quorum at the next ensuing county court, as does that of the county clerk.

"At a County Court——Held at Upper Marlborough Town——on the fourth Tuesday and twenty-eighth day of March—in the year Seventeen Hundred and seventy-five.

"Present the Worshipful Joshua Beall, Christopher Lowndes, William Lock Weems, David Craufurd, Alexander Symmer, John Harrison, James Crow, John Baynes, John Read Magruder, Richard Henderson, Thomas Gantt, Jr., Thomas Clagett, Trueman Skinner, Jeremiah Magruder, Alexander Howard Magruder, Gentlemen Justices. . . . ." * For more than thirty-five years many of the records containing the Court Proceedings of Prince George's County, Maryland, have been practically lost under a mass of debris in the attic of the county court house. Recently Mr. S. D. Hall, Clerk, authorized Mr. Leroy S. Boyd and Mr. C. C. Magruder, Jr., to institute a search which resulted in the recovery of most of the records, including all but one subsequent to March term, 1775, and prior to May term, 1777, of the Revolutionary period, (1696-1783, organization of the county, etc., lacking one Revolutionary volume, and these volumes are available in the Clerk's office).

<sup>a</sup> Henry Harford was the natural son of Frederick, last Lord Baltimore, and as such was "proprietary" of Maryland, but he did not bear the title of Lord Baltimore.

Thomas Duckett, Sheriff. (Liber EE2 at 1.)
